

San Francisco Chronicle

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA'S LARGEST NEWSPAPER

PiX / A patchwork of Bay Area parties & personalities

Neiman Marcus hosted a cocktail party to introduce the new nonprofit organization Alzheimer's Research for a Cure Foundation and to kick off the group's inaugural gala, which will be in February.

Photos by STACY CAHILL for Drew Altizer Photography

Neiman Marcus hosted a cocktail party to introduce the new nonprofit organization Alzheimer's Research for a Cure Foundation and to kick off the group's inaugural gala, which will be in February. ❶ Sandy Mandel (from left), chair of the February gala, with Joel Goodrich and David Costello. ❷ Patricia Ferrin Loucks (left) and Valerie Coler. ❸ Paige Koch (left) and Janice Snook. ❹ John Capizzi and Clara Shayevich. ❺ Jewelry designer Elizabeth Locke. ❻ Fati Farmanfarmaian and Jorge Castillo. ❼ Mari-Elizabeth Gomez (from left), Marissa Israel and Mark Levinson. ❽ Barbara Brown (from left), Freda Scott and Laurie Adams.

